Professor D. A. Low Collection

Collection of materials related to Uganda by Professor Donald Anthony Low (1927-2015). Professor Low was a historian of modern Africa, South Asia and the British Commonwealth, particularly decolonisation.

The focus of the collection is primarily on political and economic history in the colonial period and the eve of independence, possibly forming part of his research material for his book The Mind of Buganda, and some essays in Buganda in Modern History.

BOX DAL/UG/POL/1

6. Pamphlet. Agreed Recommendations of the Namirembe Conference (With Appendices A & B). (Known as the Hancock Committee), 1954. pp. 1-40 (pp. 1-18 in English, 19-40 in Luganda). Printed by the government Printer, Entebbe, Uganda. (For the report of the Subcommittee of the Lukiiko’s examinations of the recommendations made by the Hancock committee, see DAL/UG/POL/1.8)

Father’s Printing Press. Kisubi- Entebbe, Uganda. (For the original recommendations made by the Hancock committee, see DAL/UG/POL/1.6 & DAL/UG/POL/1.7)

21. Correspondence, typed, with hand-written signatures from Bataka to the Secretary of State regarding the land questions. 1923.

2. The Mind of Buganda
3. Buganda in Modern History