Searching for a specific item

It may be that you want to search for a specific item rather than browsing through the whole list. Once you have conducted the search you will see it highlighted in brackets in the section view, next to the lecture or topic title. The book, of course, or I article may appear more than once. You can see it hear singled out. To see everything again, cancel the search.